Description	Sant Gadge Baba birth anniversary was celebrated at Sangola Mahavidyalaya, Sangola by placing wreaths on his image by the hand of the Head of the college I/C Principal, Dr. Suresh Bhosale. Gadge Maharaj (23 February 1876 - 20 December 1956) also known as Sant Gadge Maharaj or Sant Gadge Baba was an Indian mendicant saint and social reformer from the Indian state of Maharashtra. He lived in voluntary poverty and wandered to different villages promoting social justice and initiating reforms, especially related to sanitation. He is still revered by the common people in India and remains a source of inspiration for various political parties and non-government organizations. His original name was Debuji Zhingraji Janorkar. He was born in Shendgaon village in present day Anjangaon Surji Taluka in Amravati District of Maharashtra to a Dhobi schedule Caste farming family. A public teacher, he travelled from one place to another wearing his food pan upturned on his head and carrying his trademark broom. When he entered a village, he would instantly start cleaning the gutters and roads of the village. He also told the citizens of the village that their congratulations would have to wait until his work was done. Villagers gave him money, babaji used that for progress of physical as well as thinking of society. From the obtained money, Maharaj built educational institutions, dharmashalas, hospitals and animal shelters.

He conducted his discourses in the form of "Kirtans" in which he would emphasize values like service to humanity and compassion. During his Kirtans, he would educate people against blind faiths and rituals. He would use Dohas (couplets of a song) by Saint Kabir in his discourses.

He exhorted people to stop animal sacrifice as part of religious rituals and campaigned against vices such as alcohol abuse.

He tried to embody the values that he preached, hard work, simple living and selfless service to the poor. He abandoned his family (a wife and three children) to pursue this path.

Maharaj met the spiritual teacher Meher Baba several times. Meher Baba indicated that Maharaj was one of his favourite saints and that Maharaj was on the sixth plane of consciousness. Maharaj invited Meher Baba to Pandharpur, India and on 6 November 1954 thousands of people had Maharaj and Meher Babas darshan.
